

British Values Statement :- Ashwood Park Primary School

Ashwood Park is committed to serving its community and surrounding areas. We recognise the multi-cultural, multi-faith nature of the UK and understand the way our school plays in promoting these values.

We encourage admissions from all those entitled to education under British law regardless of faith, ethnicity, sexuality, political or financial status.

We are a school for all.

Democracy

Children are involved in democratic processes e.g. voting for school councillors and shared rewards.

- ✓ The school council is led by a member of staff and adheres to democratic process
- ✓ We have links with the police who come into school regularly to support the school and community
- ✓ We have organised trips to parliament
- ✓ The curriculum promotes democratic thinking

Individual Liberty

- ✓ Pupils have key roles and responsibilities in school
- ✓ Within school pupils are actively encouraged to make choices, knowing that they are in a safe and supportive environment
- ✓ Through our curriculum clubs and opportunities, pupils are given the freedom to make choices
- ✓ We follow the UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools agenda

Mutual respect

- ✓ Our PSHE curriculum embodies values of mutual respect
- ✓ Our sports coaches actively promote an attitude of equality and fairness
- ✓ Our buddies (believe to achieve) in Yr 5 promote mutual respect

The Rule of law

We have a clearly structured behaviour policy which all stakeholders understand and follow:

- ✓ Class charters are agreed at the start of each year
- ✓ Assemblies are delivered with a focus on the law
- ✓ Visits from the police are included in the curriculum

Tolerance of others

- ✓ Our RE curriculum provides a broad and balanced education on a range of faiths, religions and cultures.
- ✓ We celebrate festivals and special occasions in school
